

Punctuate these sentences with commas and full stops.

1. The boy looked out of the window, he wished he could go out to play.
2. Matthew turned on the television but there was nothing to watch.
3. It was so unfair Daniel was not allowed to play on the Xbox, until he did his homework.

Punctuate the paragraphs.

4. Something woke Scott and he lay listening to the wind buffeting the house and rattling the windows. He got out of bed and pulled the curtains aside peering into the unfamiliar darkness. It was their first night in the new house, lightning flashed! In that instant he saw a figure hurrying from the house towards the gate which led up onto the moors...
5. Deep in the forest, the magical Lake glittered in the early morning sun. Tall trees stood like silent guards around the water's edge, thick branches keeping out all but the most determined of visitors. In the middle of the Lake, a purple mist swirled around. The figure watching from the bank knew just what the mist concealed...
6. 'Avalon!' the woman whispered. Her dress was long and black, decorated with dark jewels that seemed to greedily draw in the light from around her. Although the early autumn air was cold, the woman wore no cloak and not a single shiver crossed her pale skin.