

Wednesday 8th July 2020

Reading - Inference

It's time to think a bit more deeply about what's really going on in the poem with these lovely INFERENCE questions. Have another read of 'The Great Fire' before you tackle them.

1. The writer says that the fire started in 'a bakery'.

Is he stating a fact or giving an opinion?

.....

1
mark

2. Read from 'Londoners scramble...' to '...now run free.'

Find and copy a line that shows the buildings burnt quickly.

.....

1
mark

3. What suggests that King Charles had just got out of bed?

.....

1
mark

4. a) What evidence is there that the fire had a positive effect on London?

.....

.....

1
mark

b) Why was this only 'Small comfort'?

.....

.....

1
mark